Video Activity #1: Watch and Learn

Each of these videos extend and the stories told in the harlem is... exhibitions. As an complement or alternative to the text-based exhibition narratives, these videos capture the sights and sounds of Harlem and the extraordinary people whose talent, businesses, and activism form the spirit of the community.

Celebrating what harlem Is	(21 mins.)
harlem Is... Theater	(28 mins.)
harlem Is... Music	(25 mins.)
harlem Is... Gospel	(31 mins.)
harlem Is... Art	(27 mins.)
Craig Harris: Spirit of Harlem	(8 mins.)
Hughes' Dream Harlem	(60 mins.)

Video Activity #2: Create your own short videos

Use your smartphone to create a 1-2 minute video that celebrates the sights and sounds of your community. What neighborhood locations define the essence of your community? What soundtrack will you choose? What types of people will you select to feature or interview? See the Making a Difference Curriculum for tips on creating video projects and conducting
